

Shawano County's 343rd Barn Quilt Now on Display

Shawano County's 343rd barn quilt is now on display on a small horse barn at N4317 County Highway CC, about two miles southeast of Shawano. The quilt was designed and sponsored by Mandy LaMarche of Shawano. The pattern, which features a mustang horse in a red, white and blue motif, is called America's Mustang.

The quilt design represents family values and a strong support of patriotic values and love of God and country. "The individual stars represent family members past and present who have served and are presently serving in our country's military," LaMarche said. "The horse represents our love of horses...and what is more American than a wild horse, right?" LaMarche said.

"I just love the way the quilt turned out and want to thank Jim Leuenberger for the great job he did painting it," LaMarche said. "Many of my friends who have seen the quilt have told me it's the best one in the county!"

The barn quilt was put on display by LeRoy Raddant and Brekken Kleinschmidt of Raddant Electric in Shawano.
