

“Stars In Flight” is Barn Quilt Number 45

James and Lone Grunewald of Bonduel have sponsored Shawano County’s 45th barn quilt. Called “Stars in Flight,” it is mounted on a well-preserved red barn built in the 1890s at W4439 County Road BE, Bonduel.

“We are really happy with our barn quilt and have received many compliments on how nice it looks,” lone said. “All the quilts are just beautiful and are something special for our area.”

The Grunewalds purchased the farm where the quilt is located from the Martin Sumnicht estate in 1992. Sumnicht had operated the farm until he retired. The barn houses beef cattle and the land is used for crop farming.
