

Shawano All-Stars Sponsor “All Star” Barn Quilt

The Shawano All-Stars, co-managed by Mary Jo Brunner and Marilyn Ebert, have sponsored Shawano County’s 128th barn quilt as part of the county wide project started by local photographer Jim Leuenberger. The quilt pattern, called “An All Star Array,” is on display on the farm of Keith and Sandy Ebert at N4951 State Highway 117, Bonduel.

The Ebert farm was selected to be the host for the “All Star” quilt because Marilyn’s deceased son David was a member of the Shawano All Stars. “We think the quilt is a fitting tribute, not only to David, but to all those persons who have been and are members of this special team,” Mary Jo Brunner said.

Keith and Sandra Ebert purchased the 80 acre farm from Clarence and Doris Jandt in 1978. Throughout the years, the farm has always been operated as a dairy farm. The Eberts have a herd of 40 Holstein cows plus young stock. The original barn on the farm was built in the early 1900s.
