

Second Barn Quilt Now on Display

Shawano County's second barn quilt is now on display on a barn owned by Mike and Diane Wendorff, 4418 State Highway 22, just south of Shawano.

The quilt was sponsored by the Bit-N-Bridle 4-H club and painted by members Noah Bell, Stephanie Christensen, Molly Russell and Jordan Bell. Delores Brey is the general leader for the club and Diane Wendorff the co-leader. Heidi Russell, who assisted the members with the painting, said, "The Kids really enjoyed painting the quilt and are really proud of how it turned out."

The Wendorffs are pleased to be part of the barn quilt project as well. They have owned their farm since 1989 and live there with their son, Tyler.
