

Holewinski Farm is Home to 98th Shawano County Barn Quilt

Shawano County's 98th barn quilt, called "Building the Stars," a blend of four different shades of blue, is now on display on the farm of Ken, Diane and Paul Holewinski, W1905 County S, Pulaski. The quilt was sponsored by Jason Holewinski, one of Ken and Diane's sons.

Ken's grandparents, Frank and Francis Januchowski, moved from Milwaukee and bought the farm in 1916. Later, Ken's mother, Lucille, married John Holewinski and they purchased the farm in 1934. After John retired in 1968, he sold the farm to Ken, who had a dairy herd for 48 years. Ken and Diane's son, Paul, started farming with his parents in 1999 and now has a herd of 90 Holstein cows along with 50 head of young stock. Ken continues to help with feeding chores as well as field work.

Paul has two sons, Landon and Hunter, who have dreams of farming with their dad after finishing their education.

#